

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13

NOON – 5PM

To benefit the

Edith G. Read Wildlife Sanctuary

Join us and discover this hidden jewel in Rye in its autumnal splendor. Nestled behind Playland between the Long Island Sound and Manursing Lake, this 179-acre county park offers wooded trails, a nature center and glorious views.

FALL FEST 2018

- TWO BY TWO ZOO: The Wild World of Animals
- THE NATURE COMPANY: hands-on animal program
- SKY HUNTERS IN FLIGHT: raptor & falconry demo
- LIVE MUSIC, FOOD TRUCKS, PUMPKIN PATCH, KAYAK/ PADDLEBOARD AND YOGA DEMOS, EDIBLE BUG BAR, FACE PAINTING, STORY TELLING AND DIY CRAFTS: pottery, painting, gardening, cooking, sewing, flower and leaf art, origami and beeswax
- EXPLORE YOUR COMMUNITY with interactive displays sponsored by the Rye Youth Council, Rye Free Reading Room, Rye Historical Society, Rye Arts Center, Westchester Children's Museum, Rye Town Park, Rye YMCA, Marshlands County Park, Bird Homestead & Meeting House Conservancy, Rye Sustainability Committee, Rye School of Dance, Rhythm on Rye, Westchester Sandbox Theatre, Sew Happy, Clay Art Center, Hilary's Table, Big Picture Foundation, SUP Westchester, Prime Paddlesports, Sweet Fern Garden Design, Fani Flowers, Tovami Yoga, Visionary Face & Body Art, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and much more!

$10 per person (3 and under free) includes all activities. Free family admission with purchase of $50 Annual Family Membership

FREE PARKING - SORRY, NO DOGS
COME RAIN OR SHINE

www.friendsofreadwildlifesanctuary.org

George Latimer
Westchester County Executive

